

The 21st Golden Oldies Festival

The Greatest Oldies Party in Germany

From July 30th to August 1st the Middle-Hessian Wettenberg becomes the capital of Oldie music. For three days the motto of the whole town is: music, motors, economic miracle. On 9 stages 50 bands will be playing Beat, Soul, Pop and Rock'n' Roll of the fifties to the seventies. Classics and evergreens of the twenties to the forties will also be part of the programme at the foot of the Castle of Gleiberg. Apart from the large music programme many activities, exhibitions, and a well-mixed programme for children will be offering entertainment and diversity. On the original "Nostalgia Market" with about 100 stalls you will find original products of the so-called time of the economic miracle. Petticoats, tulip lamps, records and jukeboxes will be offered on the main street and in the multi-purpose hall. According to the motto "life-style and luxury of the fifties" it is not only the ladies who stroll along the main street below the castle in the outfit of the time. Don't miss the "pram parade" on the main street on Saturday at 5p.m.: It has become cult! Please watch the video!

On Saturday, July 31st and Sunday, August 1st the highlight will be the big exhibition of classic automobiles! It is a meeting of all kinds of auto brands and private car owners as well as old-timer clubs are welcome! Those who own a 1979 model or older can get registered for the exhibition on SUNDAY free of charge. Registration is possible until July 1st 2010 (download here!). More than 1,000 old-timers will be welcomed by Johannes Hübner on Saturday and Sunday morning! Look at the photos of the whole festival! The festival taking place from July 31st to August 1st will be supported by main sponsors.

Supporting Programme:

The Marburg Police Motorsports Club can be found on Post-/Hauptstraße. The Police Old-timer Museum in Marburg has 50 old timers for display.
